

General Litigation

Our litigation practice is well known and highly respected and has earned a reputation for excellence among our clients, the judiciary and the legal profession. McGinnis Lochridge lawyers are tough, creative, thorough and tenacious, yet always pragmatic. Our focus is on our valued clients and their interests. We understand that when clients need legal assistance, the goal is to resolve the issues favorably and efficiently, minimizing any negative effects on the client's business and life.

Experience, results and a cost-conscious approach to litigation are important. Our attorneys are skilled negotiators who at times best serve our clients by resolving disputes quickly and effectively through negotiated settlements in mediation or other alternative dispute resolution forums. Our litigation attorneys have extensive experience in a broad range of civil matters for plaintiffs and defendants. We represent clients in trial and appellate courts and arbitrations throughout Texas and across the nation. Our litigation attorneys are prepared to handle complex civil litigation matters.

We have built strong, valued relationships over the years working closely with our clients. Our clients range from individuals and start-ups to Fortune 100 companies. They include public and privately-held companies in a wide variety of industries, including technology, oil and gas, securities, insurance, finance, communications, healthcare, banking and finance, real estate, manufacturing, construction, legal services and many other industries.

Our broad client base is matched by the extensive range of our litigation experience. We have experience handling a broad range of litigation and arbitration matters.
